

Coming Soon!

Rebel Women

By Joan Bryans

Based on the words of the UK suffragettes

Oct 12—27, 2018

This is the story of the British Suffragette movement. Told through the actual words of the women who fought. They were imprisoned, humiliated, abused, but kept fighting for their cause, and against all the odds – they eventually won.

We reserve the right to substitute one title with another should it become necessary to do so

Santa in Space

By Paul Reakes

Our Christmas Pantomime
Dec 14, 2018 – Jan 5, 2019

The evil alien Vileun has almost achieved his desire to rule the planets - except Earth. He decides to blackmail Earthlings into subservience by kidnapping Santa! Can Santa's friends rescue him and save the world? Our hero, Captain Dick Daring leads an expedition of would-be hero's and heroines into outer space to find him and bring him home in

The Little Theatre's Production of 'Hamlet'

By Jean Battlo

Mar 29 — Apr 13, 2019

A sophisticated New York director reluctantly travels to West Virginia to direct Hamlet under the auspices of a grant for "under served regions." Only six people audition and as a result this group perpetrates the most harrowing production of Shakespeare ever mounted. Some funny mishaps occur amid sincere attempts to tailor Hamlet to this cast. The final result provides an example of realizing the impossible dream.

Wait Until Dark

By Patrick Knott

A psychological thriller
June 7-22, 2019

In this thriller, a blind housewife is terrorized by a group of criminals who believe she is in possession of a doll stuffed with heroin. The woman's husband unwittingly brought the doll home. Once she is alone in the apartment, the criminals try to take the doll from her.

Contact Us

Deep Cove Stage Society
4360 Gallant Avenue
North Vancouver, BC V7G 1L2

(604) 929-3200
info@deepcovestage.com

Visit us on the web:
www.deepcovestage.com