Bear Witness

By James Reach

Directed by
Mandana Namazi

Oct 18—Nov 2, 2019

A young woman takes her baby out for a stroll and witnesses a murder. What's more she realizes the murderer is her sister-in-law's boyfriend. The police find out that the young woman was in the area of the crime and so does a mob boss. Suspense drama keeps you guessing.

The (Musical!) Beast of Mt. Seymour

A Modern Panto About a Friendly Sasquatch

By Toph Whitmore

Directed by Angie McLeod
Dec 20—30, 2019

Love, laughter, and doughnuts collide in this rollicking, ridiculous and local panto: Boy band "6DOT" is headed to Deep Cove for a concert but meets up with some mysterious mischief! On the case are a dame, a police chief, a horse detective, good guys, bad guys, a merman, and one misunderstood yeti. Is the Beast real? Will 6DOT make the show? Will anyone find true love? (Maybe, maybe, and maybe...).

Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike

By Christopher Durang

Directed by Maryth Gilroy
Mar 27—Apr 11, 2020

Vanya and Sonia have never left the confines of their childhood home, while their sister Masha has been galivanting around the world as a successful actress. A surprise visit from Masha and her 20-something boy toy, Spike, throws the normally quiet household into utter upheaval as its residents and visitors get swept up in an intoxicating mixture of lust, rivalry and regret.

The Strange Case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde

By Noah Smith

Directed by Tracy Labrosse

June 5-20, 2020

Dr. Jekyll is a famous chemist, fascinated with the duality of spirit. His friends, Lanyon and Utterson, are intrigued with his research, as is his fiancée Helen. But the doctor goes one step too far and uses himself as a subject for his experiment. His alter ego, Mr. Hyde, appears and wreaks havoc in London. Although Dr. Jekyll has an antidote, will it work? Does he enjoy his evil self??
